

In January, the Makassar Extension at the Red Cross Family Center in the west end opened. The Alameda Housing Authority financed supplies for the program. Previous outreach programs that included the Naval Air Station and Bay Farm Island closed due to a lack of volunteers and a deficit budget.

1974

Annual Special Events included Girls Club week, a Christmas gift sale, fashion show, Father/Daughter Dinner, Mother/Daughter tea, Auxiliary pot luck and softball game.

1978

Today's Girls, Tomorrow's Women

In response to the powerful challenges of the civil rights movement, the women's movement, the flood of women entering the workforce, and the adolescent turbulence of the time, programs offered to girls changed to address their needs to prepare for very different adulthoods.

1975

Girls' Club in annual drive for members

Shelly Martin, who recently moved to Alameda with her family, received the 5000th membership card issued by the Alameda Girls' Club. Shelly, 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Martin, and will enter Franklin School in the fall. To make possible the program of classes and fun for all Alameda girls from 8 through high school age, the Alameda Girls' Club depends upon the support of individuals and businesses in Alameda. It is currently conducting its annual adult membership drive to raise funds to carry on the duty program at the Dr. Edith Meyers Center on Union Street. Lois Douglas, membership chairman, reported that "we are not over half-way there yet."

1976

1976

A few dedicated members of Auxiliary made a big impact for the organization. The Auxiliary of Alameda Girls' Club sponsored parent participation events and the Annual Father Daughter Valentine Supper alongside giving additional support to the organization.

1979

Program activities included facts of life, sign language, baby sitting, photography, first-aid and puppet workshop classes as well as knitting, tutoring, sewing, embroidery, weaving, cooking, physical fitness, modern dance, hiking, roller skating, bike riding, and bowling.

1966

Alameda Girls' Club hosts annual area-wide Girls' Club picnic

Over 370 girls from the Alameda, Richmond, San Leandro, East Oakland, and Menlo Park Clubs' at Crown Memorial State Beach. There were volleyball, badminton, tennis, and other sports. The picnic was a great success. The girls had a wonderful time. The picnic was held on Sunday, September 17, at Crown Memorial State Beach. The girls had a wonderful time. The picnic was held on Sunday, September 17, at Crown Memorial State Beach.

Alameda Girls' Club hosted the 10th Annual All Girls Picnic for over 370 girls from the Alameda, Richmond, San Leandro, East Oakland, and Menlo Park Clubs' at Crown Memorial State Beach

1980

Paden after-school day care program off to a great start

Alameda Island Kids, formerly Activity Centers opened. An outreach program for extended care was initiated at Paden school, co-sponsored with Alameda Boys Club.

1981

Moving time for Xanthos House, Girls Club

Girls Club is leaving its headquarters on Union Street to occupy the former Xanthos House building on Santa Clara Ave. The new building is a two-story structure with a large front porch. It will be the new headquarters of the Alameda Girls' Club.

It's moving time for two big social service agencies

Alameda Girls' Club purchased new building formerly owned by the Alameda Boy Scout Council that was leased to Xanthos. The new building is a two-story structure with a large front porch. It will be the new headquarters of the Alameda Girls' Club.

AUGUST 1982

Moved to its current location at 1724 Santa Clara. The new building allowed for twice the floor space and extended program hours.

JANUARY 1983

1983

1974-1983

Inspiring girls for 50 years to create bold futures.

Girls Incorporated® of the Island City

